

LET'S GET MOVING!

Enriching Movement Ideas for the Early Childhood Classroom

Professional Development Workshop
For Early Childhood Educators

Receive 3 hours credit toward the Ohio H.B. 119 requirement of ODE Approved Professional Development!

Connie Bergstein Dow

Connie received her M.F.A. in Dance from the University of Michigan School of Music. She is a dance educator and writer, and has worked in the field of movement for over thirty-five years.

Connie is the author of Dance, Turn, Hop, Learn! Enriching Movement Activities for Preschoolers, (2006, Redleaf Press) as well as various articles about art and movement for young children.

Her credentials include presenter at the 2007 NAEYC conference in Chicago and the 2008 OAEYC conference in Columbus. Connie has performed and taught dance in Central and South America as well as in the U.S, and enjoys teaching both children and adults.

This fun and engaging session will provide the tools you need for introducing guided movement to young children, including classroom management strategies, curriculum enrichment, large motor skill development, dramatic play, and creative and educational movement activities.

 Targets the ODE Early Learning Content Standards ***

Workshops can be conducted in your school or day care center, and can accommodate up to 30 people. Discounts are available for 10 or more participants
